

Stephen Sjolander

Summary of Qualifications

Over 29 years of experience developing both systems and applications software, including real-time embedded systems, network management applications and management visualization applications. Acted in the roles of project manager, customer contact, technical lead, and lead developer. Involvement in all aspects of software development including specification, design, implementation, documentation, and testing. Implementation languages have included C#, SQL, ASP.NET, Java, C++, Visual Basic, Forth, and various assembly languages. Strong TCP/IP networking skills, both programmatic and administrative. Expertise with XML parsing and XSLT stylesheets. Familiarity with the use of SQL with Microsoft SQL Server from C# and Java. Experience in IT hardware and software selection, purchase, deployment, and maintenance.

Experience

2004–Present Sjolander Software LLC Anaheim, CA

Software Consultant

- Started and continuing to operate a software consulting business.
- Involved in all aspects of customer software development projects in C# and SQL.

1998–2004 Netaphor Software, Inc. Irvine, CA

Principal Engineer

- Involved in all aspects of network management software development in Java and C++.
- Responsible for maintaining the corporate IT infrastructure that was based on Windows (Exchange and Lotus Notes) and Linux servers.

1992–1998 Digalog Corporation Ventura, CA

Senior Software Engineer

- Involved in all aspects of embedded real time software development in Forth and Visual Basic.
- Responsible for maintaining the corporate IT infrastructure that was based on Windows NT (Lotus Notes).

1985–1992 Forth, Inc. Manhattan Beach, CA

Senior Software Engineer

- Involved in all aspects of embedded real time software development in Forth.